Establishing a Vibrant Mosque in Kitimat, British Columbia

Supporting the spiritual and social needs of Kitimat's growing Muslim community

Expanding Community:

- ▶ Our Muslim community has grown leaps and bounds and expectation is that it will triple in 2-5 years
- ▶ Over 100 attendees at the Eid prayer in 2024, highlighting a growing Muslim presence in Kitimat
- ▶ Driven by employees and families associated with major industries such as Rio Tinto, LNG Canada, and Cedar LNG

Need for Facilities:

- ▶ No Islamic Center between Prince George and Prince Rupert, spanning over 700 km
- ▶ Gap hinders effective community integration and limits access to Islamic services and gatherings

Critical Functions:

- ▶ Essential religious and cultural support for newcomers
- ▶ Preserving and sharing Islamic heritage and values
- ▶ Focal point for Muslim community life in Northern British Columbia (BC)

Youth and Identity:

- ▶ Safeguarding Islamic identity in the digital age, providing a space for knowledge, community, and faith

Benefits for Kitimat:

- ▶ Welcoming and supporting Muslim workers and families from all over the world
- ▶ Enhancing Kitimat and BC's appeal for international workers and families, supporting industrial project success
